

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act has given me back my quality time with my family, especially during the dinner hour. Please don't ever do away with this Act!